

Although Daniel was born and raised in Cumbria he has spent the last 10 years living, working and studying in and around Hampshire & Berkshire. His background is one of leading and delivering complex transformational projects and programmes whilst establishing environments which facilitate continuous improvements to achieve operational requirements and strategic aspirations. This has been within both SMEs & multinationals across the Private, Public and Charitable sectors.