

Richard is a retired Chartered Accountant with roles ranging from European finance director of a Fortune 500 company to non-executive and executive directorships of small UK quoted companies, mainly in the IT sector.

He is currently a co-opted member of Portsmouth Hospitals Trust Finance and Infrastructure committee and a trustee and treasurer of Citizens Advice Hampshire where he chairs the Hampshire Macmillan Citizens Advice Service. He is Citizens Advice Hampshire's nominated director on the board of Healthwatch Hampshire. In 2015 he was elected Gosport Citizen of the Year.